

Dragonfire - Price Guide for Displays

www.dragonfire.co.uk

Dragonfire are bulk buyers of the finest fireworks from around the world. This allows us to offer generous quantities of a wide variety of high quality material in our displays. Every Dragonfire show is carefully planned for the occasion. Supply us with details of the event and we will design a spectacular display to fit your needs.

Prices for displays can vary widely depending on the scale and length of display required. The most prestigious displays fired for corporate functions and large public events can typically be budgeted at £1000-£2000 plus per minute, whilst more modest celebrations for private events may be budgeted at prices around £300-£800 per minute. All prices are fully inclusive of transport, labour, materials and public liability insurance, but are exclusive of VAT.

Price range £950-£1750. Displays for weddings and private parties of 4-7 minutes. Effects featured: Silver Fountains and arches of silver Roman Candles, multi-shot ground batteries and mines with a colourful finale of bombettes and shells up to 200 ft. Displays at this level give you the benefit of a professional service, and use of material you can't buy in the shops.

Price range £1850-£3999. Effects featured: Fountains in Silver and Gold; Batteries of 5, 10 and 20 single colour and multi-colour Roman Candles; Whistle, Crackle and Flash Candles; Tracer Comets and bursting Star Bombettes; 100mm Mines with 75ft colour star plumes; Aerial bursting shells reaching altitudes of 100-1000 feet; A special finale bouquet of up to 200 projectiles fired in 45 seconds, culminating in giant 150mm Colour Changing shells. Displays at this level are suitable for private parties or corporate functions.

Price range £4000-£8999. These displays can include all of the effects of the smaller displays plus: Opening salute of Crackling star and Brilliant Brocade shells; Special Effect Mines, such as Screeching Serpents or Humming Tourbillions; Matching barrages of aerial bursting shells and rockets filling the sky to altitudes of 1500 feet. A finale bouquet of up to 450 projectiles fired over 75 seconds on five levels, finishing with the gigantic bursts of 200 and 250mm shells. These displays are suitable for prestigious private & corporate parties.

Price range £9000+ As the price per minute rises you move into the realm of large public displays, with huge barrages of shells bursting on many levels simultaneously. Pyro-musical displays to a recorded soundtrack, live concert displays and November 5th displays are often in this category. Ask to see our CD-Rom or DVD to see examples of our displays at this level.

Fire Sculpture. Another Dragonfire speciality is the creation of fire sculptures, burning with green, blue or yellow coloured flame and lasting up to 10 minutes. These can be festooned with special effects, or stand alone. Price according to size and complexity from £500.

Lancework in up to 5 colours can be created to represent logos, words or line drawings. Set pieces can be created as a ground based element of a display. Duration is usually 1 minute. Price according to size and complexity from £400.

Special Requirements. Special displays can be created to suit any budget and to fit particular site needs or customer requirements. For example we can offer quiet displays, or stage a low level display, or provide daylight displays.
